Note: The functions listed here are not exhaustive. This chart reflects the most common functions that have been explicitly granted to each body as part of its ordinary activities.

* As of January 2021; for courts this number reflects the number of States that have accepted the court's contentious jurisdiction through a separate declaration or protocol

Note that many bodies interpret multiple treaties, including any protocols to the core treaty

Separate State acceptance, through a declaration or ratification of a separate protocol, is often required for complaint proceedings

** This function or body is not yet in operation.

◇ While the treaty-specific oversight body cannot receive individual complaints regarding this treaty, the Inter-American Commission on Human Rights can do so.

* The Inter-American Commission's additional functions include holding thematic hearings and publishing thematic reports.
